“Jazz for the Masses” at The Flat Top!

New jazz source Nextbop.com and KRTU's 'The Line Up' have teamed up forces to bring to you jazz for the masses. An unofficial daytime party bringing jazz into The Flat Top Burger Shop for the first time.

On Wednesday March 13, 2013, The Flat Top will be filled with the sound of international, national, and local jazz talent. Nextbop.com has searched far and wide to find a diverse and eclectic set of jazz musicians. Some musical delights for the East side of Austin.

Just as the previous daytime parties, it is free, and there is no wristband or R.S.V.P. needed. All ages are welcome.
